477 Billion Web Pages Saved in the Wayback Machine

Monday, October 19, 2020 • 7 p.m.
Via Zoom

Yes, that is billion with a B. The Internet Archive is a nonprofit library of millions of free books, movies, software, music, websites and more that have been preserved digitally. Their Wayback Machine specifically archives the World Wide Web. Heard that name before in your wayback memory? Its name is an homage to The Adventures of Rocky and Bullwinkle and Friends, where the Wayback Machine was the device that transported the erudite dog Mr. Peabody and his adopted son, Sherman, back into history.

We welcome Mark Graham, director of the Wayback Machine, as our speaker for the Monday, Oct. 19, monthly meeting. Start time is 7 p.m. Look for a separate Zoom invitation email the first week of October. Take time to check out the Internet Archive and Wayback Machine at archive.org.

What do you want to know about how information is captured? What are crawlers? Where is everything stored? How can you access websites that have been taken down? Consider this a research project and come up with stellar questions to pose to Mark!

Halloween

Half-Costume Contest

And why not? Let's come dressed in costume for this meeting, but only half a costume.

With Zoom, all is not seen, so you only need an upper-half costume. All contestants will have their names put into a magic hat. And should you wear a costume depicting a famous woman, your name will be entered twice into the drawing. Give it your half-best and hope to win the prize!

My promise for this 100th anniversary year was a monthly blurb or something to enrich our knowledge of the suffragist struggle. The Half Moon Bay Library has graciously offered us this link to a recent talk given by Dr. Ellen Carol DuBois from UCLA, "The Surprising Road to Women Suffrage." It's a wonderful perspective on the long struggle for women's voting rights.

President's Message An Interesting Year So Far

Well, this has been an interesting year so far—stuck at home for six months because of COVID-19 and now stuck behind closed doors and windows because of unhealthy air. I notice the breeze is blowing today so maybe the air will become cleaner.

In fall, the colors change, leaves fall and the crisp air comes. We are still staying in, wearing masks and staying six feet apart. I'm hopeful that doing these things plus getting vaccinated will let us socialize again. If you are looking for things to fill your time and give you something to think about, AAUW-CA and AAUW (website addresses are on the first page of your branch directory) both are producing webinars you can watch at your convenience. Read, watch TV, call friends, Zoom to have drinks with friends. Keep busy. Stay healthy and well.

Scholarship News

AAUW-HMB was the lucky recipient of a generous donation of $1,000 from the Wayne L. Hinthorn trust!

This will definitely help our chapter to provide the much needed and appreciated scholarships to our well-qualified young women. This is especially valuable during these times when our usual fundraising activities have been reduced.

Local Voting Information

All ballots for the Nov. 3 California general election will be mailed to voters by Oct. 5.

As the result of a new law passed this year, state election officials must accept mail-in ballots that arrive up to 17 days after Election Day, so long as they are postmarked by Nov. 3.

The deadline to register to vote is Oct. 19. Same-day voter registration, known as conditional voter registration in state law, is a safety net for Californians who miss the deadline to register to vote or update their voter registration information.

Eligible citizens who need to register or re-register to vote within 14 days of an election can complete the same-day process at their county elections office, polling place or Vote Center. Their ballots will be processed and counted after the county elections office has completed the voter registration verification process. You can register (or re-register) and vote at the same time at any Vote Center all the way through Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Beginning Oct. 5, voted ballots may be placed in any secure ballot drop box location throughout San Mateo County. Coastside locations include:

- Inside New Leaf Community Market, 150 San Mateo Road (available during regular business hours only).

- Outside Half Moon Bay City Hall, 501 Main St.

At San Mateo County Vote Centers you can register to vote, vote in person, return a voted ballot or request a replacement ballot.

The following three Vote Centers will be open from Oct. 5 through Nov. 2 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Nov. 3 from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.:

- Assessor/County Clerk/Recorder, 555 County Center, Redwood City.

- Registration & Elections Division, 40 Tower Road, San Mateo.

- Main Library, 840 W. Orange Ave., South San Francisco.

These Coastside Vote Centers will be open Oct. 31 through Nov. 2 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Nov. 3 from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.:

- Half Moon Bay Emergency Operations Center (aka San Mateo County Sheriff's Office substation), 537 Kelly Ave.

- The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 475 California Ave., Moss Beach.

Speech Trek Topic Announcement

Unless things change in the next few months, Speech Trek will be conducted on Zoom this year. The topic is "Has Social Media Helped or Hindered the Breaking Down of Barriers for Women and Girls?"

Mary Vargas will contact teachers at Half Moon Bay and Pescadero high schools in October to recruit students to the program. She will follow up with interested students to give them the details.

Speech Trek

There are four branch members working to make this a success despite no in-person student contacts. Allene Zanger (co-chair) and Paulette Eisen (tutor) will learn how to manage the program on Zoom. Antoinette Wrubel will tutor later in the year.

It will be interesting to see how this change works out this year. It may be better!

Mary Vargas, Speech Trek Co-Chair

The Holidays Are Coming!

When you're making your holiday shopping plans, please be sure to include Tidings' advertisers high on your list of stops.

Look for their ads throughout this and every issue of Tidings. In alphabetical order, they are:

- Coastside Books
- Goldworks
- Hartcards
- The Paper Crane

These shops are open and eager to serve you through this pandemic, the holidays and beyond. It's critical that the Coastside retain all of its businesses and you can be part of that. Tidings is so grateful to have the generous support of our advertisers.

If you have a business or know of one that would like to advertise in Tidings, the cost is $50 for the next eight issues or $10 per issue. Please contact Nancy Evans at egnancy@comcast.net to get your message in front of our readers.

Big Lift Collaborative Update

The Big Lift Collaborative continues to meet each month even though the summer program had to be cancelled because of COVID-19. Educators on the Coast are working remotely to meet the educational needs of our children. The educational community now, of course, includes parents, librarians and childcare providers, who are all working to support education.

San Mateo County Libraries is providing extensive support and allocating internet hotspots to those in need. Check our local Half Moon

Bay Library website for details. Children are even able to sign up to read to a nonjudgmental, patient dog listener also known as a trained therapy dog. Our Child Care Provider Program is serving small groups of children following the guidelines from the CDC and the state of California. The Boys and Girls Club is serving 34 middle school and high school students and plans to expand to 12 more in the near future. Hal Bogner has offered to connect with teachers to provide free chess lessons for students, but he pointed out that kids would need chess sets at home. Again, funding is needed for the sets even though the instruction will be free.

The Cabrillo Educational Fund is offering innovation grants to teachers and seeking funds to provide IT tech support for each school. San Mateo County Office of Education is recognizing the need for better internet connectivity on the Coastside. Kids can't do remote learning if they aren't able to connect to the internet at home, even with hotspots. Our Coastside Big Lift program continues to link educators together for the benefit of our children. Give any educator, childcare provider or parent a virtual high five. They are amazing!

Sue Hatfield, Representative

Are You Connected?

The AAUW-CA communications team created a new digital publication, the California Connection.

This tool allows us, the AAUW California board, to communicate directly to our members right in their inboxes. The California Connection will be sent before the 10th of each month and will contain information we hope members will find both helpful and entertaining.

With the advent of this new publication, we are placing the publication of the California Perspective on hiatus for the time being. We hope that by reaching our members on a monthly basis we will be able to provide them with information in a more timely manner.

The California Connection is only good if it can reach you. So please check your email address in the membership services database on the national website. If you need help, reach out to your branch leaders or contact Julika Barrett in the AAUW California office at 916-448-7795 or at office@aauw-ca.org and she can assist you.

AAUW Fund Virtual Luncheon: Register Now

We hope you saved the dates for the AAUW Fund Virtual Lunch with AAUW fellows and grant recipients. The lunches will be held via Zoom on Saturday, Oct. 10, and Saturday, Oct. 24. Both webinars will begin at 1 p.m. Each lunch will have a different speaker so feel free to register for both here.

In order to motivate you to register for the lunches, here is background information on AAUW fellowships and grants as well as the women who received the three research and project grants funded by AAUW Half Moon Bay and awarded by AAUW National.

Overview

AAUW has a long history of helping women pursue their education. Overall, AAUW has given more than $115 million to more than 13,000 women and nonprofit organizations around the world. In 2019-20, 259 women and community projects received fellowships and grants and $3.5 million in fellowship and grants were awarded for the 2020-21 academic year. The funding helps ease the burden of student debt, which disproportionately affects women, so that promising women can excel in their fields and become leaders in business, government, academia, community activism, the arts and sciences.

There are seven types of fellowships and grants available. I will focus here on Career Development Grants, which were awarded to recipients of the three grants funded by AAUW Half Moon Bay. More information can be found on AAUW's website.

Career Development Grants

Career Development Grants were established in 1972 to offer "encouragement" funding to renew or resume academic work for credit toward career or employment advancement. Today, grants provide funding to women who hold a bachelor's degree and are preparing to advance or change careers or re-enter the workforce in education, health and medical sciences or social sciences. Primary consideration is given to women of color and women pursuing their first advanced degree or credentials in nontraditional fields. Funds are used to support course work beyond a bachelor's degree, including a master's degree, second bachelor's degree, certification program or specialized training in technical or professional fields. Funds are not available for doctorate work.

2020-21 Recipients of AAUW Half Moon Bay Grants

recipient of a career development grant funded in part by the Edna Cox Grant. Denise is a veteran science educator who resides in Riverside. According to AAUW's website, Denise wishes to expand her expertise by diving into meaningful plant ecophysiology research aimed at understanding the strategies plants employ to tolerate drought and heat across ecosystems. With a sound knowledge base and university ties established, she will then create an engaging plant ecology course for high-school students, with the goal of providing the necessary key instruction in relevant environmental-science topics amid today's critically changing climate.

Half Moon Bay Ruth Rafello

Grant: Karen Waters is the 2020-21

recipient of a career development grant funded in part by the Ruth Rafello Grant. According to AAUW's website, Karen resides in Glendale and is a former journalist whose beat was institutional finance. She worked for Morningstar as an editor and subsequently was directory editor of Pensions and Investments newspaper. She currently works as a director of human resources. Waters aspires to a career in aviation as a pilot. She will use her skills to unify the goals of diversity, equity and inclusion within the aviation community, particularly among Black female pilots.

Last year's recipient of the Ruth Rafello Grant, Jazmyne Gill, was scheduled to speak at our April meeting that was cancelled because of COVID-19.

Half Moon Bay 50th Anniversary Grant: Tesa Tapuriah is the 2020-21 recipient of a career development grant funded in part by the Half Moon

Bay 50th Anniversary grant.

According to AAUW's website, Tesa is a vocational specialist at Oahu's only residential substance-abuse treatment facility for women and their infant children. While fulfilling her role at the facility, she became aware of the inequities faced by women reentering the community, including a disproportionate number of sober-living environments and a lack of continuum of care as well as child-care and employment issues. Ideally, Tesa's completion of her master of science in addiction will assist her in advocating for change in these areas.

By using information found in AAUW Half Moon Bay's Directory under Research and Project Grants, you can search the Directory of Recipients and Sponsors on AAUW's website to find past recipients of our grants and keep track of future recipients.

Some Interest Groups Are Still Active

Bridge, Out to Breakfast and Walk and Talk will not meet for the rest of the year. Great Books will not meet for the rest of 2020.

Evening Book Group: Read some interesting books and join us for a lively discussion. Our next meeting is at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 27. We'll discuss The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek by Kim Michele Richardson.

On Dec. 1 we'll discuss The Dutch House by Ann Patchett. No meeting in November. All the above books are available in paperback and are available through the library. To join in or sign up, email Nancy Evans at egnancy@comcast.net at least one week prior to the Zoom meeting.

Janus: We will meet via Zoom for the foreseeable future. Please consider joining us at noon on the fourth Wednesday of the month. Our next meeting is Oct. 28 at noon. Email Mary Alice Pearce at maalice_hmb@comcast.net to join the group.

Gourmet: Still no in-person eating together. However, good food is still being made every day. Tired of sheet-pan meals? Baking bread? Want to have something really, really delicious and easy that makes a grand finale to roast chicken? My name for it is Pound upon Pound Cake.

Cut one pound cake horizontally into three or four layers, depending on your knife skills.

Melt one bag of chocolate chips, mix with one tub of sour cream, and spread between layers, stacking as you go. Frost all over. Refrigerate for an hour or so. Eat.

Quantity of ingredients depends on the size of your pound cake. Of course, you could elevate this with homemade pound cake and 80% chocolate, but it's delicious either way. You could set up a Zoom session and everyone could watch you eat and be so jealous.

Great Decisions: We're Zooming the third Tuesday of the month, Oct. 20, at 5:30 p.m. Last month's topic was an interesting discussion on the Red Sea. Our next topic will be modern slavery and human trafficking. There are YouTube links to the topics so you don't have to have the book for this meeting. If you're not already on the list, email Barbara Von Glahn and she'll send you the details. We always have interesting discussions and opinions!

With heavy hearts, we mourn the loss of more than 200,000 Americans to COVID-19. Along with those lost to the pandemic, we also grieve the passing of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. We hold her memory as an inspiration to continue her life's work: fighting for gender equity and representation everywhere. For now, to honor her, the most important thing you can do is vote.

While Election Day is less than five weeks away, adapted voting processes this election year means that every day is Election Day. With a critical election year taking place during a pandemic, our democracy needs you to work to motivate your community. Before you head to the polls or mail that ballot, help us reach as many eligible voters as possible with three easy Get Out the Vote (GOTV) actions:

1. Make your own plan to vote.
2. Use our GOTV Social Media Toolkit to share what you learned.
3. Call five friends and family to ask them to commit to vote.

Studies show that voters who make a plan, including figuring out how and where to vote, are more likely to follow through. With so many traditional voter registration opportunities on pause, every effort online will help.

Elected and appointed officials routinely make decisions about issues that directly impact all of us. From our paychecks to paid leave, access to reproductive health care to access to education, our lives are on the line — our vote is our voice.

Our democracy works when everyone can fully participate. Honor Justice Ginsburg by motivating voters in your community today!

Join the Coastsides Gives 2021 Action Team

Help make 2021 the most successful fundraiser yet!

Our goal is to build a team of AAUW-HMB members who can update our approach to Coastsides Gives to take advantage of social media and increase the number of members who give to AAUW-HMB during the online Coastsides Gives fundraiser.

Why do we need a team? We won't have the Pumpkin Festival fundraiser and Theater Bash is unlikely. Coastsides Gives is our only way to raise funds for local scholarships, Tech Trek, local STEM workshop, Speech Trek and support AAUW research and advocacy through the AAUW Fund.

How can you help? Following is a list of positions and skills needed along with how much time will be required beginning in early 2021, peaking a month before Coastsides Gives (typically the first week in May) and ending by June 1. Based on past Coastsides Gives fundraisers:

- Preparation begins in mid-January or early February with an email from Mavericks Community Foundation detailing deadlines.

- After registration, we can update the AAUW page on the Coastsides Gives website.

- Mandatory monthly meetings.
- At the meetings, participants learn about changes from last year's format, ask questions and learn how to have a successful online fundraiser.

- Approximately one month before Coastsides Gives day, prizes are announced. The need for volunteers increases at this time.

We need to fill the following positions:

Co-lead: Work with Carol Joyce to lead the Action Team, ensure all deadlines are met, schedule meetings and provide guidance and direction.

Commitment: Begins in January 2021 with an email announcing Coastsides Gives and runs through the end of June. Expect four to six hours a month, then an increase in hours during April and May.

Volunteer Coordinator for Member Outreach: Identify and supervise volunteers who will reach out to members in the weeks before Coastsides Gives with information on prizes and how to make donations. The Volunteer Coordinator will be responsible for preparing contact lists for volunteers and sharing scripts for phone or email messages prepared by the Action Team.

Commitment: Runs April through the day of Coastsides Gives for one to two hours a week.

Social Media Coordinator: Lead a team of volunteers to develop and implement a plan based on 2021 social media prizes. Social media prizes in 2020 included making a one-minute YouTube video on how donations will be used and creative Facebook posts to thank businesses whose donations made prizes possible.

Commitment: Begins in April when prizes are revealed with approximately six to eight hours with assistance from volunteers.

Marketing and Website Coordinator:

After five years, our website and fundraising messaging need refreshing. The coordinator will work with the co-leads to review our website and messaging to make it more effective.

Commitment: Begins in late January and runs until May with four to six hours a month for meetings and implementation.

Please email Carol Joyce at carollanphearjoyce@gmail.com to learn more and join the Action Team.

News and Notes from National

Renewed STEM Momentum

Thanks to a generous bequest from AAUW member and scientific pioneer Nancy Grace Roman, AAUW is pursuing several important STEM initiatives this fall. Roman, who died in 2018, served as NASA's first chief astronomer and is known as the mother of the Hubble Telescope. We're launching projects to increase STEM participation by women of color and expand opportunities in the physical sciences and engineering. We'll also assess how parents and guardians can influence higher educational choices for girls.
